Dear Fellow Kachchhi Oswals,

Pranam and Happy Summer to all.....

KOJAIN is making progress. We had a very successful Mini-Sammelan on July 5 in Edison, New Jersey, prior to the 14th Biennial JAINA Convention. The Mini-Sammelan was attended by 325+ attendees. We started with manglik, blessings and advice by Bandhu Triputi Jinchandraji Maharaj and ended with open discussion forum.

We, also, urge you to donate generously towards the KOJAIN Merit Scholarship Program. You will be doing a 'Vidya-Daan'. Your contribution to the KOJAIN Merit Scholarship Program will encourage and motivate the next generation.

Our ongoing communication is using Yahoo Group e-mail. If you are not receiving communication from KOJAIN Yahoo group, visit www.kojain.com and click to join the e-group.

2007 Election Committee is seeking nominations from members. Volunteering in an organization such as KOJAIN is a rewarding experience. It creates a deep belief in the importance of helping and giving back to the community. Community service is a way to improve the quality of personal life. Challenges and rewards of service are sources of motivation and satisfaction. Volunteering helps in gaining a stronger sense of meaning and purpose from contributing to the well-being of future generations.

You will feel so good about yourself knowing that you are important and needed and you do make a difference. Take your pen to day and send in your nomination without further delay.

Thank you all and enjoy the summer.

Reema Shah, a recent graduate of John P. Stevens High School in Edison, New Jersey, completed her Manchpravesh on Sunday, June 3rd, 2007. A Manch Pravesh is the culmination of a dancer's training in Odissi dance, a classical Indian dance form. After a glorious tradition of several centuries from 200 BC to 400 AD, Odissi dance suffered and almost receded into oblivion till the twentieth century. Its revival began after India's independence and today this exquisite dance is one of the classical dances of India. This graceful and statuesque dance is symbolized in art and sculpture all over temples in Orissa and Madhya Pradesh. The Sun Temple in Konarak in Orissa is famous for its carvings of statues in poses depicted by dancers on stage. Reema has been learning Odissi for over 11 years from Mrs. Sudha Grover. Through the years, she has participated in many shows and competitions as a student of Sudhamini Dance Academy, most recently the Sudhamini Annual Show as a graduating senior. She will be attending Harvard University in the fall. [reemashah105@gmail.com]

These forms could be sent either by mail, postmarked on or before September 5, 2007 or through email as an attachment of scanned form, by September 5, 2007. The nomination forms received or postmarked after this date shall not be considered valid.

Any youth between the ages of 15 and 30 years and qualified by KOJAIN individual or family membership in good standing is considered to be a youth member of the KOJAIN and is eligible to be nominated as Youth Committee Member. The KOJAIN youth members will vote to elect these Youth Committee Members as part of the election process. For the purpose of elections, age requirement will be satisfied as of January 1, 2008. Youth Committee members shall then elect from among themselves a Youth Representative Director who will become a member of the KOJAIN Board of Directors for a two-year term ending December 31, 2009. If no election is required, then the EC will announce the names of the newly elected Board of Directors.

If there is more than one nomination for any of the post, following process and schedule will be applied to the best of our ability:

Applicants will be able to withdraw their nomination by requesting to the chairman of EC by mail postmarked on or before September 15, 2007 or through email by September 15, 2007. If an election is required for any of the positions, the EC will prepare and mail out ballots, as well as the applicable election rules, to all the eligible voting members, by October 15, 2007. Each contesting candidate may furnish a short (up to 200 words) biographical sketch including the record of his/her service to non-profit organizations, professional associations, etc. to the chairman of EC. Since EC will mail out this profile along with Ballot to electorates, it highly encourages contesting candidates to furnish the profile. Exact number of copies of the profile to be supplied will be notified later to the contesting candidates. Any properly voted original ballot postmarked or received by the chairman of EC on or before November 15, 2007, shall be considered valid for counting. The EC will conduct opening and counting of ballots on or about December 1, 2007. Location and time for opening and counting of ballot will be announced later to the candidates contesting the election. Contesting candidates may attend the ballot opening and counting in person or through their representatives. The EC shall tabulate and submit results of the election to the Board of Directors at the earliest possible.
